HH. Roommate Rights & Responsibilities

In full support of the educational mission of the university, students living on-campus are expected to view academic responsibilities as their primary goal. Therefore, the purpose of a student's room is primarily for study and sleep, which take precedence over social privileges. Residents are expected to facilitate this environment for others around them. Each resident should also take responsibility for communicating concerns in a timely and productive manner to their roommate(s), an RA or other staff member so that concerns can be addressed.

1. Roommate Rights: The right to feel safe from harm
 - a. The right to have an environment conducive to sleep
 - b. The right to study in one's room free of unreasonable noise and distractions
 - c. The right to a clean and well-maintained space
 - d. The right to privacy and respect for one's personal space and belongings
 - e. The right to communicate and resolve grievances
2. Upon moving into a new space with a roommate, every resident will have the opportunity to initiate the completion of a roommate agreement with the RA. Once set, the agreement will be like any other policies or expectations, but does not supersede HRL Policies or the Student Rights & Responsibilities Handbook. You can work with your RA to address concerns and revise this agreement at any time throughout the year.

3. Steps for Addressing Concerns

- a. Communicate with your roommate(s):
 - o Respectfully, in person, openly
 - o Reference your roommate agreement
- b. Notify your RA of unresolved concerns.
- c. Participate in a mediated meeting with your roommate(s) and RA.
- d. Amend your agreement and set guidelines for moving forward.
- e. Engage in room change process via Housing Portal.
- f. Utilize professional staff as needed.

4. Accountability

At any time, a resident has the ability to reach out to the Area Professional staff for support. If a conflict is unable to be resolved, an Area Professional staff will step in to address concerns. This may result in continued mediation, addressing policy violations, or an administrative room change of one or more residents. The Area Professional staff is authorized to conduct an administrative room change for any resident who is violating policies, not following the guidelines and rules of a roommate agreement or mediation agreement or is found interfering with the roommate rights and responsibilities.
